

Advent 2024

In the weeks leading up to Christmas, we want to intentionally spend time with God and experience his hope. Advent is a spiritual season that reminds us that God is at work in our waiting. Every day, take a few moments to light a candle and use the prompt to be with God. You can do this on your own or with your family or friends.

Dec. 1

Read Psalm 25:4-6. How can you put your hope in God all day long?

Dec. 2

Consider: What am I hoping for in the weeks leading up to Christmas?

Dec. 3

Consider: Who are people in my life who need hope? Pray for them.

Dec. 4

Read Jeremiah 33:14-16.

Dec. 5

Listen to a worship song that fills you with hope.

Dec. 6

Consider: When have you had to wait? What are you waiting for today?

Dec. 7

Read 1 Thessalonians 3:12-13 and use it as your prayer.

Dec. 8

Read Luke 1:68-79. What phrase or image stands out to you?

Dec. 9

Consider: What is one promise from God that gives you hope?

Dec. 10

Consider: Where have you seen the light of God shining in the darkness?

Dec. 11

Read Philippians 1:9-11. How can you focus on what really matters?

Dec. 12

Consider: What can you thank God for today?

Dec. 13

Consider: What do you want from God today?

Dec. 14

Read 1 Peter 1:3-9.

Dec. 15

Read Zephaniah 3:14-17. Can you picture God delighting in you?

Dec. 16

Consider: What is bringing you joy?

Dec. 17

Read Isaiah 12:2-6. How have you seen that God is with you?

Dec. 18

Consider: Is there anything you need to do less to make room for God?

Dec. 19

Read Philippians 4:4-7. Remember the Lord is coming soon.

Dec. 20

Consider: What have you been holding onto that you need to let go?

Dec. 21

Read Psalm 130. How are you counting on God today?

Dec. 22

Read Micah 5:2-5a. Ask God to be the source of your peace.

Dec. 23

Read Luke 1:46-55. Thank God for keeping his promises.

Dec. 24

Read Luke 2:1-14. Ask God to help you hear his good news.

Dec. 25

Read Luke 2:15-20. How can you share joy with others?
